CLASSIC COTTON

What could be more classic than cotton? Similar to our best-selling MicroFiber, our cottons are known for their breathability and comfort. Our Cotton shirts are built with a vertically vented back panel for extra breathability on those hot summer days, while our Cotton Tees are perfect for layering out at the ranch. Need something a little warmer? Try our triple-brushed, 100% cotton twill Flannels.

NECK GAITER

Sometimes sunscreen isn't enough protection when you're dealing with extreme heat or cold and long hours outside. This multi-purpose headwear is designed to protect your neck, ears, or face from sun exposure. For added safety, its reflective logos at center front and center back of the gaiter increase your visibility in the field, while a ventilated front panel provides breathability and comfort. The stretch jersey back panel makes this versatile piece work for any head size.

SHORTS

Worn casually or dressed up, the cut on our shorts allows for a tailored fit around the legs. This lightweight fabric not only provides a slight stretch and flexibility, it's also exceptionally breathable, fast-drying, and wrinkle-resistant. All major seams are double-stitched for durability, and the elastic insets at both sides of the waistband ensure a proper fit and comfort for those long summer days out on the lake or when you're grilling the perfect catch that night.
